There was no room at the Inn...

And so the Sacred Family was turned away not having a place for their blessed son to be born. The shepherds knew of shelter and guided them to the manger, known to us now as the holy creche.

We realize and celebrate the message of Christ's coming that every birth is a blessing and every creation a wonder. Rejoice.

One Solitary Life

He was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He worked in a carpenter shop and was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He did none of the things one usually associates with greatness. Twenty centuries have come and gone since his birth, and today He is the central figure of the human race. All the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of man on this earth as much as that one solitary life.

During this most holiest of seasons, we remember those who shaped us, supported us, molded us, and loved us. To celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, and to acknowledge that, even with their passing, our lives have been affected by one solitary life.
